Westlake-MacArthur Park's story goes back to the late 1800s. The neighborhood's park was built around a reservoir that was connected to the LA River. By the 1920s, West 7th St had developed into one of LA's first high-end shopping districts.

Today, Westlake-MacArthur Park's diverse immigrant culture is thriving alongside new development as well as a newfound interest in revitalizing the neighborhood's landmark buildings including the nearby MacArthur—in redevelopment for production and event space, as well as live/work units.

Creative Space's Neighborhood Series is a look at the places we love and work in from the perspective of a resident creative's photo lens.

In Westlake-MacArthur Park, Creative Space invited photographer Rick Rodney to show us around the neighborhood he calls home.
